CONCERNING THE CONGREGATION

Marcus Andringa fell the week before last and broke his right arm, crushing some bones at the elbow. He had surgery this past Monday at the surgical center in Sioux Falls. The surgery went well, and he returned home the next day.

Lee Vink is asked to write to Gary Brummel and John Brummel to Derick Grimm.

Brad Gritters came down with histoplasmosis, an infection by a fungus found in the droppings of birds and bats in humid areas. He and some others were demolishing an old chimney when they must have acquired the infection. Brad was admitted to Sanford Hospital on Tuesday, but he has improved and returned home yesterday.

Let us remember these brothers and their families in our prayers. "My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me." (Psalm 63:8)
